

A Necessary Evil? Negotiating the Future of Yakuza Control and Organized Crime Legislation in Japan

Study Questions

1. What are the main goals of organized crime control laws?
2. At what level (national, prefectural, local) should legislative reform take place?
3. In which code of law (administrative, criminal, etc) should the reform take place?
4. How should the state approach the rehabilitation/integration of ex-yakuza members?
5. To what extent should the state be involved in law enforcement in the underworld? To what extent should this regulatory function be left up to the yakuza?