

The Program on Arab Reform and Democracy at the Center on Democracy, Development, and the Rule of Law present the second annual conference

FROM POLITICAL ACTIVISM TO DEMOCRATIC CHANGE IN THE ARAB WORLD

May 12-13, 2011

8:30-5:00 pm

Bechtel Conference Center

Encina Hall, Stanford University

The Program on Arab Reform and Democracy invites you to their second annual conference, which focuses on empowering political activism in the Arab world. The two-day event will feature scholars and notable activists from the region discussing the achievements of and challenges facing political activists in Egypt, Tunisia, Yemen, Syria, Jordan, Lebanon, Morocco, Palestine, and Saudi Arabia. This conference will provide a regional perspective on the impact of political activism to spur democratic change in the Arab world.

To view the conference program and RSVP, please visit click here or e-mail audrey.mcgowan@stanford.edu.

