JONAS LINDHOLM-UZZI

257 Mill Rd, Germantown, NY, 12526
lindholmuzzi@gmail.com

Education

Stanford University, Stanford, California

- Anticipated graduation June 2028, Ford Dorsey Master's in International Policy (MIP)
- Government and Development Track, Freeman-Spogli Institute
- Bradford Freeman Fellow

Carleton College, Northfield, Minnesota

- Graduated June 2020, Bachelor of Arts in Political Science, Cum Laude, GPA: 3.8 (2020)
- Writing distinction awarded to Senior Thesis entitled "A Caring Ethos for a World of Global Risk: Living in the Age of Climate Change."

Red Hook Senior High School, Red Hook, New York

- IB Diploma Recipient- Top 5% of graduating class (June 2015)

Professional Experiences

Fulbright Fellow- English Teaching Assistant (ETA), Dili, Timor Leste (February 2025-December 2025)

- Represented the Fulbright U.S. student program as both a support and primary lecturer at Universidade Dili (UNDIL). Foster academic exchange and strengthen US- Timor-Leste intercultural understanding.
- Designed and implemented comprehensive English language lessons for Timorese students. Enhanced university students' abilities in reading, writing, pronunciation, and academic research.
- Served as a cultural ambassador and guest speaker at Uma Amerika, the official American cultural center in Dili. Assisted in the facilitation of cultural events and English Language events to promote US State Department public diplomacy initiatives.

Peace Corps Volunteer- Rural Aquaculture Promotion (RAP), Central Province, Zambia (March 2022- June 2024)

- Part of the first cohort of global volunteers to serve in the Peace Corps after the Covid-19 pandemic.
- Conducted participatory rural needs assessments in Chitambo District to evaluate aquaculture potential and inform local development planning.
- Developed and facilitated farmer training programs integrating aquaculture, sustainable agriculture, and financial literacy to enhance rural food security and livelihoods.
- Collaborated with Zambia's Department of Fisheries on the evaluation and training of Community Economic Empowerment Commission (CEEC) aquaculture loan recipients, contributing to district-level economic empowerment.
- Advanced nutrition and livelihoods by coordinating the distribution of 3,000+ tilapia fingerlings, linking smallholder farmers to sustainable value chains.
- Led malaria prevention campaigns and spearheaded borehole rehabilitation projects, improving access to clean water and community health outcomes.
- Represented the Peace Corps RAP program at Zambia's National Agricultural Show (July 2023), engaging policymakers, academics, and local farmers on sustainable aquaculture initiatives

Paralegal Specialist- United States Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, Washington, DC (September 2020- May 2021)

- Substantively participated in numerous antitrust merger reviews and conducted investigations under the Antitrust Division's Transportation, Energy, and Agriculture section.
- Led a team of three paralegals in a transportation-related Sherman Act investigation and conducted extensive document review of high-level executives to aid in developing witness exam strategies and expert reports.
- Completed privilege review of 1000's of documents representing multiple federal agencies subject to Rule 45 subpoenas
- Conducted structured interviews with industry stakeholders to inform investigative findings.

Paralegal Clerk- Quinn Emanuel Urquhart & Sullivan LLP, New York, New York (June 2019- August 2019)

- Supported corporate, patent and white-collar crime attorneys with case research and client communications. Contributed to active case dockets and archived resolved case material.
- Worked with a revolving team of firm partners and associates on cases pertaining to asbestos litigation, corporate malfeasance, and Superfund liability. 35 hours/week.

Data Analyst Intern- The Northwestern Institute on Complex Systems, Evanston, Illinois (June 2018- August 2018)

- Compiled and analyzed experimental data for graduate-level research in complex systems.
- Created data visualizations and reports using Excel and PowerPoint, strengthening quantitative research output. 25 hours/week.

Leadership & Activities

Captain of Men's Varsity Tennis Team at Carleton College (September 2019 – June 2020)

- Member of Carleton's Varsity Tennis Team from 2016-2020.
- Led a nationally ranked Division III tennis team, managing team communications and serving as liaison between athletes, coaches, and administration.
- Balanced a rigorous athletic schedule (45+ hours/week) with academic performance, earning ITA Scholar-Athlete recognition in 2016, 2018, 2019, and 2020.

Seamester Study Abroad Program, S/Y Argo- Atlantic Crossing (September 2018 – December 2018)

- Completed a transatlantic sailing voyage from France to the British Virgin Islands.
- Earned IYT International Crew, VHF Operator, and Navigation Master certifications through intensive seamanship and navigation training. Completed classes in Marine Biology, Oceanography, and Seamanship.

Skills

Writing & Research

- Recipient of Writing Distinction Award at Carleton College. Award given to 6-8% of the sophomore class for exemplary writing.
- Cultural communication, program evaluation, and policy analysis

R-Statistical Software

- Ability to run multivariate regressions, analyze quantitative data in depth in R and Excel.