

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements	3
Preface	5
By Georg Winckler
Peaceful Coexistence, Neutrality, and Bilateral Relations across the Iron Curtain: Introduction	7
By Wolfgang Mueller
Austria and its Neighbors in the East, 1945–1989	30
By Arnold Suppan

AUSTRIA 1955–1989: POLITICS, SOCIETY, INTERNATIONAL CONTEXT

From Hyper-Stability to Volatility: Austrian Domestic Politics between De-alignment and Realignment	65
By Anton Pelinka
Austrian Foreign and Security Policy: Squaring the Circle between Permanent Neutrality and Other Pillars of Austria's International Status	81
By Hanspeter Neuhold
The Best of Both Worlds: Austria's Economy between East and West	99
By Dieter Stiefel
Austria and the United States, 1944–1989	124
By Oliver Rathkolb
Austria and European Integration, 1955–1995	145
By Michael Gehler
Austria and the Helsinki Process	166
By Thomas Fischer
The Warsaw Pact and Austria: Threats and Threat Perceptions	200
By Erwin A. Schmidl
Austrian Literature and the Cold War: A Gap in Literary History	215
By Günther Stocker

BILATERAL RELATIONS ACROSS THE IRON CURTAIN

The Soviet Union, Eastern Europe, and Austria By Norman M. Naimark	241
The Soviet Union and Austria, 1955–1991 By Wolfgang Mueller	253
The Hungarian Revolution of 1956 in the Context of the Cold War Military Confrontation By David Holloway and Victor McFarland	287
Austrian-Hungarian Relations, 1945–1989 By Andreas Gémes	307
Austria and Czechoslovakia, under Specific Consideration of Austrian-Slovak Relations, 1945–1989 By David Schriffl	334
Poland and Austria By Klaus Bachmann	360
Between Accommodation, Resistance, and Dialogue: Church- State Relations in Communist Poland, 1945–1989 By Mikołaj Kunicki	390
Austria and the German Democratic Republic, 1972–1990 By Friedrich Bauer	409
Austria and Yugoslavia: Paths of a Difficult Neighborhood, 1955–1991 By Michael Portmann	432
Austria and Romania By Paul Ullmann	462
Austrian-Bulgarian Cultural Relations By Peter Bachmaier	484
Abbreviations	506
Authors	510
Index	513