

Jointly present:

Towards a More Universal Universalism: Western and Chinese Perspectives

Speaker: Timothy Garton Ash, Professor of European Studies,
University of Oxford

Discussant: Li Qiang, Professor, School of Government, Peking University

Date: April 2, 2014 (Wednesday)

Time: 16:00 – 17:30

Language: English

Venue: Stanford Center at Peking University, Langrun Yuan,
Peking University

Timothy Garton Ash is the author of In Europe's Name, History of the Present, Facts are Subversive, and other books of political writing or 'history of the present,' which have charted the transformation of Europe over the last thirty years. He is Professor of European Studies in the University of Oxford, Isaiahs Berlin Professorial Fellow at St Antony's College, Oxford, and a Senior Fellow at the Hoover Institution, Stanford University. His essays appear regularly in the New York Review of Books and he writes a weekly column in the Guardian.

Li Qiang is Professor of Political Science at the School of Government at Peking University, Director for Development Planning Department, and Director of Center for European Studies at Peking University.

REGISTRATION:

Online : <http://fsi.stanford.edu/events/8165>

Email : lapli@stanford.edu (Leave your name, affiliation and number)

Phone inquiry : 86 10 6275 8357

COMING TO SCPKU:

Please enter from the Northeast Gate of Peking University with your photo ID.

Directional signage will be available starting from this gate. Pre-registration for vehicle entrance inside the campus is required. Please note that there are no parking spaces outside the Center.