

Study Questions

1. What are the advantages and disadvantages of the PPP model? Should a developing country consider using the PPP model in infrastructure construction? If yes, under what circumstances?
2. How should the MEMD of Uganda, which itself lacks sufficient technological know-how, effectively supervise the hired Chinese construction company in a turn-key project to ensure quality construction?
3. How can a developing country strike a balance between economic development and the ensuing environmental impact?